

Effective January 1, 2012: Teledyne Tekmar Company (Teledyne Tekmar) and an affiliated Teledyne company, Teledyne Instruments, Inc. (Teledyne Instruments), formally consolidated into a single company. Teledyne Tekmar will now operate as a business division of Teledyne Instruments. Teledyne Instruments is a subsidiary of Teledyne Technologies Incorporated (NYSE: TDY).

Teledyne Instruments will continue to operate Teledyne Tekmar out of Mason, Ohio and will continue to do business and provide the same outstanding products and services under the “Teledyne Tekmar” brand name. Your customer service and employee contacts at Teledyne Tekmar remain unchanged.

Payments against invoices can be made to the same address and using the same wire instructions as before. However, please make payments in the name of “Teledyne Tekmar” instead of “Teledyne Tekmar Company.” (i.e., no longer include the “Company” suffix in the name). We ask that you update your records to reflect this minor change.

Please feel free to contact us at 513-229-7032 if you have any questions.
